

Inventions and Innovations

English What was it like to live and work in a Victorian workhouse? Write a diary entry about your experiences of being a child in a workhouse.	Maths Find out the top speed of a Victorian motor car. Work out how long it would take you to drive from Land's End to London (or between two other locations) at this speed.	History Find out about Doctor Barnardo and how he helped Victorian children to give them the freedom to live better lives. Create a fact file about him OR Write a letter to Doctor Barnardo explaining what you think of the actions he took.
Science During the Victorian era, engines were developed. Draw a diagram that shows how steam could power a machine of your choosing.	Geography What do you know about the British Empire? Can you create a list of which countries were part of the British Empire? Find them on a world map.	English Compare a modern-day inventor's life to that of a famous Victorian inventor. How are their lives different? How did they create their inventions in different ways?
Maths Create a timeline for Queen Victoria's reign, including all the major events in her life. See: https://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/victorians.html	DT The Victorians created weird, wonderful inventions, including the automatic stamp licker, a moving pavement and a bicycle-powered shower! Make a model of your favourite and come up with some good reasons to convince us to buy it!	Art Produce your own wall paper inspired by William Morris!